About the Film

From an award-winning filmmaking team, the new documentary MAKE A CIRCLE is a love letter to early educators and a rallying cry for a child care system in crisis.

Weaving together the magic they create in the classroom, the struggles they endure at home, and their tireless activism for their profession, MAKE A CIRCLE is a deeply moving portrait of life as an early childhood educator and a promising blueprint for fixing our broken child care system.

MAKE A CIRCLE's Impact Campaign

Our campaign aims to ignite awareness, discussion and policy change by elevating the lived experience and advocacy of Early Childhood Educators themselves.

With hundreds of organizations, including advocacy groups, labor unions, government officials and others working to address the systemic crisis in early childhood education, MAKE A CIRCLE offers a unique tool for public education and mobilization. Our resources include...

Audience Reactions

"I've never advocated for our field, but this makes me excited to get involved."

-Preschool Teacher

"A powerful vehicle for moving the reluctant hearts and minds which have held us back from transformative policy."

-Philanthropic program officer

"What a gift to the field and the community of care and education all over this country of ours. What a powerful tool! WOW."

-ECE Consultant & Advocate

"This film has reignited my passion to continue fighting for the recognition and fair compensation we deserve, so that more educators can remain in this vital field."

-Family Child Care Provider & Advocate

"It was powerful for us organizers to learn from the providers in the film about staying focused on a single ask, continuing to advocate no matter how tired we are and that change will come."

-ECE Researcher & Advocate

"I laughed and cried, was moved and galvanized. I'm embarrassed about how little I knew about the child care system before watching the film!"

-Parent
